From your editor

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all clubs and Associations for your contributions to the Qibilo, over the last 5 years, because without you this publication would not be possible.

My thanks also extends to the Committee of Management, whose assistance and guidance have been invaluable in my time as editor. I would also like to take the opportunity to invite all members of Indoor Bowls to submit an article. Submissions are not limited to clubs and associations any member can have an article submitted. Articles do not necessarily have to be about bowls. So any of you budding writers, poets, story tellers, comedians how about some interesting reading.

I feel that is now time for me to hand over the Publicity position to the next person, in this instance it will be to Carmel Blyth who I am sure will do a great job also. I ask everyone to give Carmel your support by providing news articles to her in a timely fashion.

Once again thanks to everyone for your support and hope everyone has a very good year and bring home the trophy from Mt Gambier this year.

Signed your editor
Marianne Jenner

Thought for the month.

An old Cherokee told his grandson,

“My son, there is a battle between two wolves inside us all. One is Evil. It is anger, jealousy, greed, resentment, inferiority, lies and ego. The other is Good. It is joy, peace, love, hope, humility, kindness, empathy and truth.”

The boy thought about it, and asked,

“Grandfather, which wolf wins?”

The old man quietly replied, “The one you feed.”

Author unknown.

Poor Phrasing

I recently learned a valuable lesson regarding what not to say to elderly patients.

At our large hospital, I watched as a nursing assistant pushed an elderly woman in a wheelchair.

As he opened the door leading from the clinic into the hospital wing, the patient looked confused.

“Where are we?” she asked.

The nursing assistant gently explained, “We’ve gone over to the other side.”
